5. During the past two weeks I have been auditing most of the COS Seminar and am of the opinion that it is progressing favorably, if not spectacularly. Perhaps the most noticeable weakness in the present running is the fact that only four of the students are looking forward to immediate PCS abroad. Those facing that prospect are obviously interested and more eager for the experience. Of those sessions which I have monitored, a surprisingly good one was that by Assistant SSA/DDS, on finance and logistical authorities and responsibilities of the Chief of Station.	25X1

joined the course on 11 October having completed the National Interdepartmental Seminar. The course thus far is going fairly well; however, because of the heterogenous make-up of the course, the seminar25X1 discussion periods are not going as well as desired. There have been a minimum of substitution of speakers and on the whole the schedule is nrogressing satisfactorily. Arrangements have been made to visit on 18-19 October. The course will be joined by appointed DDP/TRO.

3. Information Reports Familiarization (Tutorial)

On Monday, 11 October, a one-week IRF Tutorial began for two students. One student is a contract agent from WH and one a staff employee from WE.
